5. Update for Adopt-A-Street

Beardsaw Mill was adopted by Sears Home Improvement and the sign is missing. Teresa Gallagher sent an email to the contact person.

6. Planning for Clean Sweep 2020

- a. Teresa Gallagher designed this year's patch. The selected animal is a Frog. Patches will be ordered from the same company as last year.
- b. 2020 dates are April 18 - 26. The website has been updated and people can now register.
- c. Shelton Lakes clean up set for April 18th 10AM meet up at Shelton Ave under the power lines. (Same spot as last year)
- d. Need to schedule trail work parties.

- e. Being that last year had a low turn-out, there are still enough bags, gloves & signs. Teresa will inventory what she has and signs will be put up April 1st.
- f. The Land Trust will participate in this years Clean Sweep. 110 up thru Beardsley needs to be cleaned up. The location will be added to the website.

7. Comments by members

A. Sheryl spoke on the following:

- 1. The prior Shelton Litter Committee and showed a sample of an old brochure.
- 2. An article about Norweigan Cruise line has replaced all single use plastic bottles on its ships.
- 3. An article about the company Loop launching reusable packaging for a number of items. Refills for milk, shampoo, creams and more are expected.

B. Gil talked about China announcing they are banning single use plastics and will be completed by 2024.
