

Agenda

Shelton Community Resource Inventory Committee Special Meeting November 14, 2007

The Community Resource Inventory (CRI) Committee is a subcommittee of the Conservation Committee established in 2007 to locate and evaluate community resources such as scenic locations, historic sites, and water resources, to be incorporated into the City GIS system.

1. Introductions
2. Selection of regular meeting dates through December 2008.
3. Selection of officers
 - Chairman
 - Secretary
4. Overall Strategy – discussion. Potential work groups:
 - History workgroup
 - Scenic Resources workgroup
 - Ecological Resources workgroup
 - Water Resources workgroup
 - Farmland Resources workgroup
5. Historical Resources
 - a. Shelton Historical Society
 - b. CT State Archeologist
 - c. Native American artifact collections by Shelton residents
 - d. Yale-Peabody – Native American remains from downtown Shelton
6. Comments by members