Waiver of Bid

Date: July 12, 2023

To: Board of Alderman

From: Paul Hiller

Re: Waiver of Bidding Process for Paving of School Parking Lots

In accordance with Charter Section 7.14.3(c) and the letter attached from Brian Roach, Superintendent of Public Works, City of Shelton, a waiver of bidding process is hereby recommended for Aldermanic consideration based on the necessary timing of the project and the fact that three quotes have already been acquired.

Hello Ms. Adcox,

Below are the four designs the committee will be submitting to the board. The names of the designs should be attached to each photo file.

Blue Danube - The five stars for the five names of the town throughout the years. The "S" shape for the name Shelton. The white field also symbolizes the Housatonic River. The blue and white colors relate to the CT flag.

Navy Flyer - The five stars for the five names of the town throughout the years. The "S" shape for the name Shelton. The white field also symbolizes the Housatonic River. The blue and white colors relate to the CT flag. This flag has a darker blue which is closer to the blue used in the CT flag.

Swervy S - A five-pointed star for the five names of the town throughout the years. The "S" shape for the name Shelton. The white field also symbolizes the Housatonic River. The blue and white colors to relate to the CT flag. The green gear symbolizes the industry and agriculture in the town.

Gear and Tree - The five stars for the five names of the town throughout the years. The "S" shape for the name Shelton. The white field also symbolizes the Housatonic River. The blue and white colors relate to the CT flag. The gear symbolizes our industry, and the tree symbolizes our agriculture.

For reference the five names of the area were Pootatuck, Coram, Ripton, Huntington, and Shelton.

If you have any questions let me know. Thank you.
